

Daisuke Iwase

President and Chief Operating Officer, Lifenet Insurance Co.

Daisuke Iwase is president and chief operating officer of Lifenet Insurance Co. He co-founded the company in 2008 and assumed his current roles in 2013. Iwase, who began his career as a strategy consultant at the Boston Consulting Group and was engaged in private equity investing at Ripplewood Japan, also serves as an independent director of Benesse Holdings, Inc. He was selected as a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum in 2010 and is author of many best-selling books in Japan, including "Seimeihoken no Karakuri" ("The Gimmicks of Life Insurance"). Iwase is a member of the Tokyo committee of Human Rights Watch, a nonprofit dedicated to defending human rights worldwide. He is a graduate of the University of Tokyo and holds an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School.