

Aung Naing Oo
Director General, Directorate of Investment and Company
Administration
Myanmar

Mr. Aung Naing Oo is the Director General of the Directorate of Investment and Company Administration under the Ministry of Planning and Finance.

He was in military service from 1981 to 2000. Then, he was appointed as a Deputy General Manager of the Myanmar Agricultural Produce Trading (MAPT) under the Ministry of Commerce from 2000 to 2005. He was then promoted as a General Manager at the Export Department of MAPT in 2005.

In 2006, he became a Principal Officer (Deputy Director General) at the Minister's Office of the Ministry of Commerce and in 2010, he served as a Deputy Director General of the Department of Border Trade under the same Ministry in 2010.

Afterward, he had been tasked as a Deputy Director General of the Directorate of Investment and Company Administration (DICA) under the Ministry of Planning and Finance (Formerly known as the Ministry of National Planning and Economic Development) in May 2011. He has been promoted as Director General of the DICA since 2012. He has also been appointed as Secretary of Myanmar Investment Commission (MIC) since May, 2014.

Mr. Aung Naing Oo has been very instrumental in driving positive organizational changes and improving the policy formulation process at DICA. He has played a leading role in recasting the regulatory environment in Myanmar and made it much more attractive for foreign investors by implementing the new Myanmar Investment Law and Rules. He also played an important part in drawing up the Special Economic Zone Law. At present, he led the redrafting of the Myanmar Companies Law which provides a modern foundation for doing business in Myanmar.

He has been actively participating in far-reaching economic reforms in other policy areas of the Government of Myanmar.

He was the Co-chair of OECD Task-force on updating Policy Framework for Investment and the framework was endorsed by the G-20 Summit and has been widely accepted internationally. He was also Myanmar's Senior Economic Official to ASEAN.

Mr. Aung Naing Oo has a Bachelor of Arts and has post-university trainings in institutions including the World Trade Organization (WTO). He has participated in many international seminars and meetings related to investment, trade and ASEAN affairs.

He is married and has two daughters.